

Changing Blog Nicknames

<http://blogs.isb.ac.th>

You can change the way your name appears on your blog under each post. This is set automatically in your profile settings. Once you change it one time, it will change your display name everywhere on the blog.

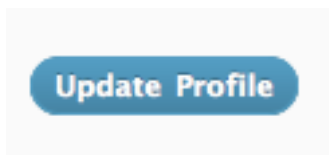

1. Log in to your blog

2. Click on Profile, Your Profile

A screenshot of the 'Name' settings form. It contains several input fields: 'Username' with '10059', 'First name' with 'Ally', 'Last name' with 'Arirachakaran', and 'Nickname' with '10059'. At the bottom, there is a dropdown menu for 'Display name publicly as' with '10059' selected. An arrow points from the 'Last name' field to the right.

3. Under Name, Nickname, write your first name (or nickname) only

4. Click Update Profile on the bottom of the page.
